One interviewee mentioned the lack of curse words as the great advantage of the historical film. By interviewing widely, oral historians seek points of agreement among many different sources, and also record the complexity of the issues.

But I think Washington is a community property state, so the rules may be a bit different. At the beginning both editorials and communications urged united resistance to oppression, praised patriotism, and denounced tyranny; as events and public sentiment developed these grew more vigorous, often a little more radical than the populace. He sat back, hands folded across his chest, and remembered.
